VOL. 10, NO. 279 MONESSEN, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1912 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

SUICIDE OF ONCE MONESSEN MAN

Brooding over the loss of his job at the Sharon plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Co., John Klingensmith, formerly of this place, blew off the top of his head yesterday with a shot gun. The suicide exploded the gun by pressing the trigger with a window stick. Since Friday when he returned home from the mill out of work he had refused to leave his bed and had even refused any nourishment whatever Mr. Klingensmith was 45 years of age. He formerly lived here on Donner avenue and was employed at the tin mill. His sad and untimely ending is regretted here by a large number of his friends and acquaintances.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors in the most sincere and heartfelt manner for the kindnesses tendered during the sickness and death of our little daughter, Harriett Louise. We cannot see each one personally to express our deep feeling of appreciation, and as words are inadequate to express ourselves as we feel and would like, we wish to thank all—everyone—for truly every favor and kindness, no matter how small, is appreciated in the deepest sense.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dougherty.

Banner to be Seen Here

THIRD STREET BRIDGE TO BE BUILT AT ONCE

The contract between the borough and the Nicola Building Co., of Pittsburgh for the construction of the concrete viaduct over Third street was signed on Saturday and work is being rapidly pushed by the contractors to have their materials and machinery here, if possible by tomorrow. The men will arrive soon after and from thence on Third street in the vicinity of Reed avenue is expected to be one of the busiest spots in town until the work is finished.

It is expected that the work will be completed in the prescribed time limit of 150 days from the date of the contract. It is thought that the inclement weather of the past month has about run its course and that from now on favorable conditions can be counted upon.

KNICKERBOCKERS ARE ALREADY FAVORITES HERE

Had it not rained last night the Star theatre could not have handled the people. As it was, the house was just about filled in all sections. The Knickerbocker Stock company opened in "Wedded and Parted." an old, old story, but ever and always new and popular with the people. The cast is strong, each person fitting well into his or her respective place. Evalyn La Telle, in the leading role of Louise Benjamin, the servant to millionaire Mathew Dean, who has been secretly married to Wilber Dean the son, became at once a favorite with Monessen people, doing her work perfectly in the emotional role. C. T. Jackson as Wilbur Dean, the outcast son is equal in emotional work to Miss La Telle, and also won great favor. Louis Browning and Mr. Clark as the schemers were all that could be desired, and Hal Worth as Willie Cheatem with his camera was always at the right place at the right time and always brought down the house. Norma Lynwood his girl, was charming, and Master George Ide, as Baby Dean, was cuteness itself. Wedded and Parted was highly complimented, there not being a criticism or a fault found. Tonight the theatre should be packed, as the bill will change Wednesday to "The Powers That Be."

No one but registered graduated pharmacists ever compound prescriptions at Kirk's Drug Store. Insist on this kind of service.

Dental Examination of Pupils Favored

Eminent men and doctors of Pittsburg say that the juvenile court is filled because of malnutrition.

We favor the examination of all school children by a dentist as well as medical inspectors.

Backward children should by all means have their teeth examined by a competent dentist. We will examine the teeth of any pupil in the schools of Monessen, and tell their parents of any defect without charge.

If any of the scholars are so unfortunate as to have no one to look after them, we will be glad to attend to them without cost.

Auditors' Work Shows Books in Good Shape

For the past ten days borough auditors, J. W. Manown, C. R. New and J. B. White have been working on the accounts of the different officers of the borough for the past year and so far everything is reported to be in excellent condition. The auditors expect to have their work completed by Thursday in time to place an account of their finding before the members of council.

Since 1905 the yearly receipts of the borough have increased by jumps and bounds until now the financial end alone is getting to be an item of more than usual size and the financial statement requires a great deal of work. The regular monthly meeting of the borough "dads" will be held on Thursday evening and there is a large amount of business to be transacted at this meeting. The Independent Telephone Co's franchise which has already passed two readings is expected to be brought up for final consideration at this time. There seems to be a doubt in the minds of some people concerning the admission of another telephone company while on the other hand there are those who favor the competition. The discussion, before its final passage or failure, is expected to be a rather lively one as both sides claim to be strong.

"THE GOVERNOR'S SON" AT THE OLYMPIC IS GOOD

"The Governor's Son" at the Olympic theatre last night drew large audiences, and as this is now the only place of vaudeville here, the people wishing variety and spice will ever drop in for an hour before going home of an evening. Seven pretty girls and good dancers and four gentlemen are in this company and they put up a show that pleased every one. Pretty faces and attractive costumes, along with good acting went to make up a show equal to any ever in the town of its class. It is truly an attraction that has just closed a one night stand tour at 50c 75c and $1.00, and was only procured at the Olympic for two nights through accident. The pictures last night were above the average and pleased every one. For a place to go to be comfortable and enjoy a good show, none should miss the Olympic. Good music, and attentive watchful attendants characterize the place and Manager Sotus personally looks after his patrons' comfort and requests that any unkindness or mark of inattention from employes be reported at his office as he wishes nothing of the kind to occur about his house. Don't miss seeing "The Governor's Son" tonight, which will be the last chance.

Result of Personal Work is Gratifying

The Personal Workers League which was formed at the close of the special Union Evangelistic meetings several months ago is meeting with the greatest success in its line of work. The organization has had a remarkable growth in membership and power since the organization and the enthusiasm of its members in their efforts to lead men into a better life is meeting with unbounded success.

At a recent session the following permanent officers were elected:—president, Frank Cummins, vice president, George Bowes, secretary, A. W. Ferren, treasurer, J. D. Luce, executive committee, Frank Cummins, G. S. Bowes, A. W. Ferren, J. D. Luce, W. L. Tayler, J. D. Nicholy, G. H. Thomas, W. J. Foster and F. D. Bumbaugh.

A committee has been appointed to secure a room on Donner avenue in which to hold evening services. The league had charge of the services at the Methodist church last Sunday evening and the officers and members have taken part with Rev. Houck in his special services at Allenport and Speers. Work of this character will be taken up as the way opens and its officers and members will be glad to assist in any work that may be brought to their notice either at home or abroad.

Public meetings are held every Sunday afternoon at 3.00 o'clock in the Baptist church to which all persons, men and women, are invited.

While cleaning house, Mrs. John Hurff, near Sewell, N. J., found an old letter written by her father during the war. This letter contained a ten dollar Confederate bill and several "shin-plasters" of the 25 and 50-cent denmination. The letter was unopened.

OLYMPIC

After a great demand from many of our patrons to bring back and show the world's greatest disaster, the ill-fated Titanic, we have decided to show it again Thursday May 2d—all day—with better illustrations and more detailed explanation to it. So those who have seen the picture, can view it again with just as much hungriness as at the first, for they

LOCAL PEOPLE GO TO MASONIC CONVENTION

It is estimated that between forty-five and fifty thousand Shriners will meet in Los Angeles, Cal., on May 7, 8 and 9 in their annual convention and extensive preparatons have been in progress for some time to make this meeting one of the most successful ever held.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Teschke left this morning to join a party of Shriners from Pittsburgh who will leave there this afternoon for Los Angeles by way of St. Louis, Dallas, Tex., San Antonio, Tex. and through New Mexico to Los Angeles. After the three day session there the party will return by way of San Francisco, Portland, through Montana, Salt Lake City, Denver and Chicago. The party will travel in a special and every comfort known to railroads will be placed at the disposal of the transcontinental travellers. Mr. and Mrs. Teschke expect to be gone for almost a month, Mr. Teschke having a brother enroute with whom they will stop off for a short visit.

Man Mysteriously Missing

Carl Ridgway of Monongahela is being sought by the officials as "a missing man." He has not been seen since April 24th. Ridgway and his wife had been staying at the Main Hotel, and the missing man was employed as a salesman for the Waterman and Waterbury Company of Buffalo, N. Y. Ridgway left on the morning of Wednesday, April 24th, for Buffalo, where he had an important engagement with his company. He was to have telephoned his wife from Pittsburgh, but instead a message came from the company in Buffalo, asking why Ridgeway did not show up to keep his engagement. Mrs. Ridgway is in a nervous condition over the disappearance of her husband.

AUTHORITIES LOOKING FOR MISSING MAN

Word was received at local police headquarters yesterday afternoon to the effect that Peter Rigstad about 30 years of age of Duluth Minn., was wanted by the Duluth Association of the Associated Board of Charities. He has been missing for some time and it is the intention of the board to find him and if possible have him return to his home where he has a wife and several children. The family is, according to the report, in rather straightened circumstances and for the past several weeks have been taken care of by the aid of the Board at Duluth.

A man by that name is known to be in town although it is not known whether he is the party referred to or not. This man calls at the post office daily and is an agent for a large wholesale concern. It is thought by the police that the two names have been confused but a thorough investigation is being made and every effort put forth to locate the missing man.

Fine Special Edition

The Canonsburg Daily Notes is to be complimented on its issue of a special Industrial Edition of five sections of eight pages each, making a paper of forty pages—eight pages greater than was contained in a Sunday edition of the New York World twenty years ago. The edition is choc-full of "Canonsburg." Commercial, industrial, social, etc., and the field is covered in a most thorough manner. The beauty of it is, the work was all done "at home." No patent, not even a page of stereotyped comics or the like, and all the work was executed with their regular office force, besides getting out their regular daily edition. An edition the publishers can justly feel a pride in and the people should cherish as a memento of historical reference in years to come. The best issue by all odds that ever came from the press of the Notes office.

With the advent of spring time also comes up that all troublesome subject of the sweet girl graduate's dress. What to buy; how much to pay; and how it should be made whether it shall be individual in style, or conform to some agreed-upon or uniform makeup, are questions equally important with the fate of the nation and far more difficult to decide upon by the zealous and anxious mother. Truthfully it can be said that the graduating or class dress ranks along with th oration, the essay, the satulatory or valedictory to be delivered from the platform on commencement day for the edification and gratification of parents and friends, even so as to the money spent, and time, worry and over-work expended by the mother in planning, shaping and completing it.

There was a time when the class dress of the aforesaid sweet girl graduate was a thing at which to marvel, provoke the keenest jealousy, implant pangs of regret which years of time could not obliterate.

There came a modification to a degree, it is true, it being the opinion of parent and teacher that for those leaving the common schools to take up work in the higher institutions of learning or the more serious and practical affars of business life, that there was a lot of senselessness indulged in, and that theoretically, distinction should be eliminated and maiden graduates come before the public as one class—one social class—void of distinctiveness and the plain, simple frock worn, thus placing poor girls and rich girls, as near as possible, on an equal footing on that eventful day or evening. There is a day when they each take a different pathway in life, to make their mark in the world for good or ill. But while that policy is good, and for a time was adhered to, in many instances, yet the tendency remains and the desire prevails for those who can to have nicer dresses than others, and many who are really not able go beyond their real means in order to have their daughter appear equally attractive with her class mate on graduation night. In a class at Muncie, Ind., a class of girls decided that $3.50 should be the limit of expense for graduating frocks Five yards of white goods at 25 cents a yard; six yards of lace at 12 cents; 60 cents for ribbon; 15 cents for incidentals and 50 cents for advice from a professional dressmaker, and there you are. Simplicity makes the sweet girl graduate a dream, and it would be a blessing to the mothers and a credit to the graduate if uniform simplicity were adopted and followed instead of the expensive flubdubbery and flounces which are paramount at the present day graduation.

Anybody can be a weather prophet these days. All one has to say is "It will rain tomorrow" and five times out of six he is right. That is about as good as the average weather man can do.

The way those policemen and constables got down to business Saturday was a caution and it is certainly a good thing that a little clean-up was inaugurated in the neighboring village.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but dreaded it so that I began taking your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, R. R. No. 3, Murrayville, Ill.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Monessen People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Likely the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that is the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no better remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills endorsed by over one hundred thousand people, and by your neighbors in Monessen.

Mrs. H. L. Coleman, 311 Sixth St., Monessen, Pa., says: "A member of my family has used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years and has found them very effective in relieving kidney trouble and backache. I have never used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, but I know that they are deserving of endorsement."

Starting The Fire

"They brought the coal this afternoon, Harry," Mrs. Newsom announced as her husband sat down at the dinner table and she placed the steak before him.

"Good!" ejaculated Newsom. "I'll build a furnace fire tonight, Kitty. We're starting it earlier this year than we did last."

"Later," Mrs. Newsom said, as she seated herself opposite him. "Last year we built our first furnace fire on Oct 18. I remember the date perfectly; it was the day I entertained the card club and Mrs. Warren couldn't come. Her sister was ill and Mrs. Warren remained at home to take care of the children, much to my relief; she is a very fussy woman and you know how a furnace fire makes such an odor when it's started?"

Newsom nodded his head as he cut into the steak. "I don't remember all that, of course, but I do remember that we started the furnace later, about the 28th, I think."

"How ridiculous of you to insist upon that, Harry, when I've just told you when we did start it!" Mrs. Newsom rejoined, her cheeks flushing. "I say we started the furnace on Oct. 18."

"I've not the slightest objection to your saying that, my dear, because you evidently believe it, provided you grant me thep rivilege of saying that we started the fire on Oct. 28."

"You're exasperating, Harry," Mrs Newsom exclaimed, rising to her feet. "I'll get my diary and settle the matter once for all" She rushed out of the room.

Newsom called after her: "I'll get the coal bill; that will settle it."

At the end of several minutes Mrs Newsom appeared in the library, where her husband was searching through a letter file

"Harry, you've hidden my diary so I can't convince you of your mistake," she accused him "What have you done with it?"

"I haven't seen your diary. What have you done with the coal bills?"

"They're somewhere in the file You can look for them while I'm eating my dinner; I don't propose to dine on cold steak and potatoes after I had the trouble of making them hot, simply because you're obstinate"

Mrs. Newsom swept out of the room, only to return the next instant, declaring with visible elation· "Now, I'm certain we did start the fire on the 18th, because the day after that the man put up the storm windows and he swept the coal dust off the walk."

"Wonderful memory you have," Newsom declared, shutting the file in disgust. "How do you happen to remember that Oct 19 was the day the man put up the storm windows and swept off the coal dust?"

"Because that was the day after we started the furnace fire on the 18th," Mrs Newsom answered, triumphantly. "Now, are you convinced? And speaking of memories, you destroyed last year's recipted coal bills when we cleaned house, so it's hardly worth your while looking further for them"

"I'm not convinced," Newsom shouted, springing to his feet He dropped the file in his flurry and scattered the contents, which did not add to his amiability. "But there must be some way of convincing you. Yes, come to think of it, I made a note on the direction card that hangs beside the furnace. Now, I'll show you."

"You never mentioned before that you made a note on the card when we started the furnace," Mrs. Newsome said, suspiciously.

In the dining room thye encountered Mrs Newsom's young sister, who exclaimed: "What's the matter? Why aren't you eating your dinner? I ran over to borrow the evening paper for mother; dad forgot to bring one"

"Rhoda," Mrs Newsom cried, desperately, "do you remember what day we started our furnace last year? Wasn't it the day I entertained the card club and you helped me serve?"

"No, indeed," said her sister "The women nearly froze that day sitting around in their thin dresses," was the unexpected answer. "It was the next day. I remember perfectly, because you had to keep an appointment at the tailor's and you were afraid to leave a fresh fire unwatched."

"I—I—well—" Mrs. Newsom stopped and a reminiscent look crept into her eyes "But that was the day the man put on the storm windows, and I can't recall that I went to the tailor's. Still—wait a minute I'll telephone mother. She always remembers everything."

Mrs. Newsom rushed to the telephone and Newsom made his escape downstairs. The next moment Mrs. Newsom exclaimed, the receiver to he ear: "The 10th? You're sure? The day you brought Betty's baby over and the flat was so lovely and warm? You're quite positive?"

Mrs. Newsom flew downstairs and breathlessly confronted her husband as he lighted the gas in the basement. "We are both wrong," she said. "It was Oct. 10. Mother remembers."

In silence Newsom consulted the card. "We started the furnace fire last year on Oct. 20—exactly one year ago today," he announced. "Come on, Kitty. I'm ravenous."

For a short time after the heavy rains of last evening the streets were impassable in many places. A large amount of clay from the hillside was deposited on the streets by the water and the street department is busy today in an effort to remove the debris as quickly as possible.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Personal Workers League recently it was decided to hold meetings for men every Saturday evening in the basement of the Baptist church. The meetings are to last for an hour and admission tickets will be distributed to men and boys along the streets. Several interesting features have been arranged for.

The Republican State Convention will convene tomorrow morning at Harrisburg and politicians from all over the State are expected to be in attendance. Among those who are attending from this place are A. N. Lister, C. L. Schuck, H. R. Pore the Roosevelt delegate, G. H. Thomas.

A fire occurred at the River Coal company repair shops at West Monongahela, which caused several hundred dollars damage before it was early distinguished. The fire had its origin in the blacksmith shop and is thought to have been caused by a spark from the bit furnace. The blacksmith shop, the coal shed and a portion of the machine shop were destroyed before the fire could be put out.

PEOPLES FORUM

This column is devoted to the expression of the opinion of our readers and in no wise denotes the paper's opinion on, or sympathy with, any question involved.

Daily Independent:—In perusing your Monday's report of the raids made Saturday night and Sunday morning on the outskirts of Monessen borough, the question comes up in my mind as to whether it is according to law, and whether it is for the best interests of the town to have all our police force—both regular and reserve—pack up, bag and baggage, take the patrol wagon and hie themselves to the township, clear beyond the city limits, to help the constables in work which is wholly their own to cope with.

At the time referred to, from 2 until 3 o'clock, the part of town that the city treasury pays to have protected, was wholly at the mercy of fire, robbers and anything dire which might have befell. Not an officer on his beat and even the patrol gone, all out in township territory where they have no jurisdiction and no right, except possibly in case of murder or a dangerous riot. There are at least three constables in Monessen, and the raiding of joints of this kind, outside city territory, is in their hands, and they can resort to county officials and the mounted police, but it is not right, and it is not law for regularly employed, salaried officers to all forsake their posts of duty and have the people and business interests, right in the heart of a town unprotected. They are paid to perform certain duties and they are not supposed to forsake those duties, at least all at one time, to go out into a township to assist township constables in work which they should be able to handle, or call to their aid the State Constabulary which is reserved for just such duties.

Another thing, these same officers look forward to the court trials in such cases, as being taken to Greensburg as witnesses. Getting a few days rest and vacation with mileage paid and the regular witness pay, and at the same time draw their pay from the borough, just the same as though they were here doing duty on their regular beats. This, we think, is neither legally or morally right, and it does seem that a rigid line should be drawn as to the absolute duty of our paid officers and that strictly adhered.

The writer can cite an instance in an adjoining county, where just such a case happened. Constables at a mining town beyond the borough limits of a county seat laid plans for a raid, requested the aid of the police and they responded just as was the case at Monessen. The result was the entire force was discharged. These are only a few points which many think the people should be informed on, the matter discussed, and the fact established as to what should and what should not be the official capacity in which our peace guardians should work.

Citizen.

Editor Independent: Your report of yesterday referring to the robbery at the Johnston and DeMont meat markets one night last week is rather misleading, and in my estimation should be corrected a little. In the first place the robbers are supposed to have been the same as went through the P. & L. E. station some time ago—probably boys. They did not get $25.00 as reported, and no meats were taken. At each store the cash registers had been emptied of all money except a few pennies which were left in the drawers as is usually the custom, and not more than a couple of dollars were procured at the farthest. At DeMonts entrance was made by removing a large pane of glass which was easy from the reason that only a few hours before the glass had been put in and the putty being yet soft no difficulty was encountered. At Johnston's the glass being broken out, the lower portion had been closed by nailing on thin boards and these had been easy to kick off. The proprietors of these places kept no night lights burning, hence the miscreants could work in almost perfect safety and seclusion.

Warnings had been repeatedly given both as to the rear fastings and the lights. Now the glass has been put in good and strong and the night lights are kept burning so that a repetition of Friday night's robbery is not likely to occur.

A watch is being kept for the perpetrators of these petty robberies and ere long they will be caught in the net.

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is, "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could enumerate, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished. We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means; yet oftentimes, it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS ALLOWED SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN FOR THESE LONG SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna."

This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

Printed on bond writing paper, blue cloth, handsome. Price, 35 cents postpaid; imitation alligator skin, gold edges, $1.00 postpaid. Order now. Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.

We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the streams of time.

"Men's hearts are failing them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.

The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the Age of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present world-wide social, religious and political unrest.

As though by instinct the whole creation, while it groans and travails in pain together, waits for, longs for and hopes for the DAY, calling it the "GOLDEN AGE"; yet men grope blindly because not aware of the great Jehovah's gracious purposes. And to his wondering creatures, looking at the length and breadth, the height and depth of the love of God, surpassing all expectation, He explains: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord; for as the heavens are higher than the earth so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55:8, 9.

Prisoners Get Salty Doses

In disposing of the prisoners captured during the raid of Saturday and Sunday, Burgess Reamer meted out salty sentences in the cases coming under his jurisdiction. Della Simonds arrested on a charge of illegal liquor selling, plead guilty and was held for court under a $1,000 bail. Charlie Thomas is held on a charge of felonious assault under a $300 bond while the others had smaller fines assessed against them. The owners and inmates of the disorderly houses forfeited their bonds because of non-appearance. All in all the days were a great success financially to the borough

The Cat Must Die First

According to the terms of the will of the late Bun Dilly, a wealthy saloon keeper of Wilkes Barre, his estate of $25,164.91 cannot be distributed until a pet cat of which he left two, dies. One died since the master passed away, but the executors must hold the fund in trust until the other cat dies, then several relatives will share and share alike.

Too Free With His Money

On petition of the Monongahela City Trust company, his mother, guardian and several others, the court at Washington has directed that the bank should give to John T. Borland $2,105 for the purchase of an automobile and $1,000 a year for its maintenance. The young man is said to be rather weak minded but has no bad habits further than that he has a penchant for giving away his money. He lives out doors in a tent, winter and summer, and this automobile is gotten because his old one is about worn out. Young Borland is reputed to be worth about $50,000.

News Notes of Society

Miss Gertrude Marie Miksch of Charleroi and Clifton Clegg of Belle Vernon were united in marriage at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 27, 1912, by the Rev. Bastion, pastor of the Lutheran church. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home which was very prettily decorated in pink and white. There were no attendants and none witnessed the marriage but members of the two families. Mr. and Mrs. Clegg left after a wedding dinner for a short wedding trip. They will likely take up house keeping in Monessen, Mr. Clegg being employed at the local freight station.

JUDGE VAN SWEARIN-GEN IS HONORED

Washington, D. C., 29—The appointment of Judge John Q. Van Swearingen, of Uniontown Fayette County, by President Taft as United States Circuit Judge to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Judge John B. McPherson, of Philadelphia, to the Circuit Court of Appeals, is predicted here.

Judge McPherson was chosen by the President to fill the vacancy in the Court of Appeals caused by the death of Judge Lanning, of New Jersey. The report that Judge Van Swearingen will be named as Judge McPherson's successor came as a surprise, as Joseph Whitaker Thompson, United States District Attorney in Philadelphia, was most talked of.

It is believed that Senator Penrose is playing a prominent part in the selection of the man who will succeed Judge McPherson.

Admires Pastor Russell's Book.

Atlanta Constitution—Bill Arp, the "Southern Philosopher," wrote the following review of "The Divine Plan of the Ages" some time before he died:

"It is impossible to read this book without loving the writer and pondering his wonderful solution of the great mysteries that have troubled us all our lives. There is hardly a family to be found that has not lost some loved one who died outside the church—outside the plan of salvation, and, if Calvinism be true, outside of all hope and inside of eternal torment and despair. We smother our feelings and turn away from the horrible picture. We dare not deny the faith of our fathers, and yet can it be possible that the good mother and the wandering child are forever separated?—forever and forever?

"I believe it is the rigidity of these teachings that makes atheists and infidels and skeptics—makes Christians unhappy and brings their gray hairs down in sorrow to the grave—a lost child, a lost soul! * * *

"This wonderful book makes no assertions that are not well sustained by the Scriptures. It is built up stone by stone, and upon every stone is the text, and it becomes a pyramid of God's love, and mercy, and wisdom.

"There is nothing in the Bible that the author denies or doubts, but there are many texts that he throws a flood of light upon that seems to remove from them the dark and gloomy meaning. I see that editors of leading journals and many orthodox ministers of different denominations have endorsed it and have confessed to this new and comforting light that has dawned upon the interpretation of God's Book. Then let every man read and ponder and take comfort, for we are all prisoners of hope. This is an age of advanced thought, and more thinking is done than ever before—men dare to think now. Light—more light—is the watchword."

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

A Few Applications of a Simple Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Don't delay another minute. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur at once and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in your hair.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.
